Every Church a 'praying church'

Every church must be a praying church even when no liturgical celebrations are taking place.

it must be a place where in the restless world, one can meet the Lord in peace. Max Thurin

Weekly Reflection

Let it be our prayer, today, that as we still bask in the hopeful glow of Easter faith that we can become witnesses of the risen Lord, by being in every way instruments of peace and encouragers of hope.

Deacon Greg Kandra
